

The Mid-Atlantic Region of the Costume Society of America invites you to spend

A Saturday in Historic New Castle, Delaware

August 21, 9:30 am to 3:30 pm

- View the New Castle Historical Society’s textile exhibit, Tying The Knot – New Castle Nuptials Since 1784
- Participate in a special viewing of historic clothing from the Society’s collection not on exhibit. The Society is the 2010 recipient of one of the Costume Society of America’s Small Museums Collections Care Grants.
- Tour the 1738 Amstel House, the 1892 Old Library Museum, and enjoy a guided walking tour of the New Castle Green.
- Enjoy a Dutch treat lunch at one of New Castle’s historic restaurants or bring your lunch and picnic at Battery Park on the Delaware River.

Plus, a panel will discuss producing the Tying The Knot exhibit using limited staff, volunteers and budget:

Mike Connolly, Executive Director, New Castle Historical Society

Colleen Callahan, Consultant, The Costume & Textile Specialists

Susan Hannell, Collections Volunteer, New Castle Historical Society

Stay in New Castle Saturday night and visit other area attractions on Sunday.

Local hotels include:

AmericInn, (800) 396-5007

Hilton Christiana, (800) 348-3133

Clarion Hotel The Belle, (302) 428-1000

Quality Inn & Suites, (302) 328-6666

The Terry House B&B, (302) 322-2505

Sights to see in and near New Castle include:

The Read House & Gardens

The New Castle Court House Museum

Brandywine River Museum

Hagley Museum & Library

Historic Houses of Odessa

Longwood Gardens

Winterthur Museum & Country Estate

Program Fee: $20 for members of CSA, Small Museums Association & Delaware Museum Association; $15 for student members; $25 for non-members.

Please note: The Old Library Museum is not wheelchair accessible. The Amstel House is partially accessible.

---

REGISTRATION (Please Print)

Name: _____

Address/Email: _____

Amount enclosed (Circle One):      $20 member                      $15 Student Member                      $25 Non-Member

Make checks payable to “New Castle Historical Society”

Mail to: Susan Richman, New Castle Historical Society, 2 East 4th Street, New Castle, DE 19720

MUST BE RECEIVED BY AUGUST 16.

Program attendees will meet in front of the New Castle Court House, 211 Delaware Street, New Castle, DE 19720. The museums are within a block of the Court House. Additional information, including directions and parking details, will be sent to registrants.