Invites You to Attend

“THE MAGIC of THEATRICAL COSTUME” WORKSHOP

MONTEREY PENINSULA COLLEGE
980 Fremont Boulevard
Monterey, CA 93940

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2008

Join us for a day devoted to ‘behind-the-scenes’ theatrical costume techniques and treasures. Faculty members from the Theatre Department and the Family and Consumer Sciences program will share their expertise in creating costumes and woven textiles and information about the MPC instructional programs. We’ll also have the opportunity to attend an MPC Main Stage production in the evening!

Program

The basic registration fee includes guided tours of Theatre Department and Family and Consumer Sciences instructional facilities; weaving demonstration; catered lunch, and Costume Distressing Workshop.* Reduced price tickets for “Death of a Salesman” are an additional $10 each.

*NOTE: The Workshop will be a “hands-on” workshop that includes transforming costumes into aged, old, “grotty” garments by using non-toxic dyes, paints and household items as diverse and unlikely as Vaseline, cinnamon, and rocks. Wear your painting clothes, old shoes, and bring costumes or other garments you’d like to creatively destroy!

Directions

From San Francisco: Take Highway 101 South to Highway 156 Monterey Peninsula exit leading to Highway 1; follow instructions to Central Monterey exit. At stoplight just after that exit at Aquajito and Fremont Blvd, get into lefthand lane past stoplight; *** continue below...
